The interviewer gave his questions and Mussolini's answers as follows:

Q.—Are you determined on war with Ethiopia no matter what happens?

A.—I have not said so. Q.—Is it not a fact you have presented your East African case rather badly to the world?

A.—Yes, the case has not been thoroughly understood. Q.—Would it be possible to harmonize the East African situation by the establishment of a joint Italian, British and French protectorate?

A.—Impossible, impossible. Multilateral protectorates are no good. Q.—Does Italy wish to resign from the League of Nations?

A.—Not at all. I do not wish to quit Italy from the League. Q.—Is there still a good chance of peace?

A.—Peace is possible. Mussolini was quoted further as saying he did not believe there would be war in Europe for several years.

In connection with Italy's plan in East Africa Kallenborn said: It emphasized the economic of an Italian economic penetration rather than a cultural one.

Declares Party Will Go Down to Ignominious Defeat

Long delayed announcement of the provincial election date was a good proof of the cowardice of the U.F.A., who could be likened to a criminal condemned to death and begging for a few more minutes of life.

The wheels of justice grind slowly and just as surely as the criminal is hung so will the U.F.A. party go down to ignominious defeat and the rope will be jerked by the mobsters of Alberta, states the mayor.

Commenting on his own political status, Mayor Clarke said he was an independent and had a perfect right to think what he wished. He was firmly of the opinion that the continuation of the U.F.A., in conjunction with the various parties, will be the ruin of us finally, and will put an end to the high salaried men breaking up our home.

Yankees Resign McCarthy Manager

NEW YORK, July 17.—Joe McCarthy, manager of New York Yankees since 1931, Tuesday was signed by Col. Jacob Ruppert to pilot the club in 1936 and 1937.

Signing of McCarthy for two years at the same terms was Ruppert's answer to the rumors the former Chicago Cub manager would be ousted when his current contract terminated this year and Babe Ruth given the job.

Each Side Scores 117 Runs As Dramatic Changes Feature Tilt

CALGARY, July 17.—Ridley College's touring cricket team staged a routing finish here yesterday and held a Calgary representative eleven to a tied match, each side scoring 117 runs in an encounter featured by several dramatic changes in turnover.

The St. Catharines collegians defeated another Calgary eleven Monday by 199 runs to 118. It also brought Ridley's record to three wins, two defeats, one drawn match and a tie. The college team will next play Vancouver representative sides Friday and Saturday.

A tide of fortune changed several times during the contest which was played in ideal weather. Ridley started off poorly, but at lunch time had scored 91 runs for three wickets. Then there was a sensational collapse. Cyril Pelt, Calgary and Alberta all-round star, taking six wickets for nine runs after the interval, with the last seven Ridley batsmen adding only 28 runs and the whole side was out for 117 runs.

Calgary began well and appeared to have the game cinched when Eric Blaisy and Bert Cole put on 45 runs for the first wicket.

Ridley bowlers then got the upper hand and dismissed six batsmen for an addition of 16 runs, and Calgary appeared to be in for a second defeat with the scoreboard showing seven wickets down for 64 runs.

Edgar Roberts and Phil Griffiths, however, put on 59 runs in an eighth wicket stand which again changed the complexion of the game. Calgary looked certain for a victory with two wickets in hand

"Keep Your Pipe Cool,"

Advise Mr. Picobac

"Ninety in the shade doesn't bother me," said the philosopher of Sunny Southern Ontario's Burley tobacco belt. "Turn on the heat."

Having chosen a comfortable spot for his feet on the verandah railing, Mr. Picobac filled his pipe from a sea-tight Picobac pouch and leaned back in his chair for a mild, cool, sweet smoke.

"Heat ripens the Burley," said he. "That's why we have it hot down here on the Lake Erie front. We don't mind a little heat. We need it in our business."

"When I want to keep cool on a hot day, first thing I do is clean out my pipe. A clean pipe is a cool pipe. Then I fill her up with Picobac tobacco. Because Picobac is a cool tobacco. Picobac, you understand, is the pick of Canada's Burley, and good Burley, burns cool. Try it. You'll enjoy the hot weather better off if you smoke Picobac. It's a mild, cool, sweet smoke—in summer time or any time. And the new sea-tight pouch keeps Picobac quality and flavour moist and fresh."

Youthful Coast Stars Eliminate Two Of Seeded Players

VANCOUVER, July 17.—A young San Francisco just past his majority and a young Vancouver man only a few years his senior, supplanted the fireworks yesterday in the Western Canada grass courts tennis championships as they tumbled two seeded stars and defending titleholder.

Paul Pommer, 21-year-old Californian who stroked his unexpected victory way past two British Columbia entrants in the earlier rounds of the men's singles, turned pre-tournament predictions upside down as he lobbed and volleyed his way to a three-set victory over Mel Dranga, Seattle star, and one of the Pacific Northwest's top-notch net players.

Dranga, back to defend the singles title he won last year, the first set 6-4 but from then on it was Pommer's game. Crossing the smooth-stricken net with short lobs and smashing placements, Pommer coasted the second set 6-4, then ran out the third, 6-3.

In the women's singles, the defending titleholder, Mrs. Mary Haggart of Vancouver, gave the opponents an opportunity to catch up and take the first set 6-4.

After dropping the first set, 4-6, Mrs. Haggart came back to take the second 6-3 but was carried to 10-8 before finally emerging on the first side of a 10-8 defeat.
